

Topic: Y9 Where Can we Seek Truth and Find Meaning? What Does it Mean to be Human?

Specification: How did Plato Think we can Know the Truth? The focus will be on looking at the work of Plato and how he sees that everything in the world changes so how do we know the truth?

Skills: Development of knowledge, and identification of theory.

Specification: Was God the First Cause of Everything? The focus will be on looking at the different arguments for existence. Looking at the evidence of existence as proof for a God.

Skills: Development of knowledge and identification of theory. Critical assessment of hypothesis.

Specification: What is the Banality of Evil? The focus will be on looking at how ordinary people can do evil things. Links will be made with History – particularly the Holocaust. There will also be a dilemma based learning focus on aspects of the lesson.

Skills: Development of knowledge, focus on morality with cross curricular links.