

Topic: Y9 PSHE – Health and Wellbeing

Specification: What is Contraception?

The focus will be on looking at what the purpose of contraception is and the different types of contraception available. As well as their effectiveness.

Specification: What are Sexually Transmitted Infections?

The focus will be on looking at the different forms of sexually transmitted infections and what their symptoms are and what dangers they can bring.

Specification: Why is it Important to Learn First Aid?

The focus will be on looking at the importance of learning first aid, whilst learning some basic skills – e.g. asthma attack, choking and recovery position.

Specification: What is Risk? The focus will be on looking at what risk is and how this can link to the health and sexual health of the students.