

Salvador Dalí - Spanish born artist, 1904, Dalí is famed for producing bizarre, thought provoking paintings and sculptures. He is considered to be the father of Surrealism.

Rene Magritte - Belgian born painter, 1898. Magritte often represents every day objects in unusual settings and context. Due to a fatal incident during childhood, Magritte often depicts portraits without faces.

Independent Tasks

- Describe the work of Magritte
- What are Dalí's paintings usually about?
- How can completing a Frayer Model help you at the beginning of the project?
- Can you name any other Surrealist Artists?

Art Movement	Various titles, like Surrealism, is given to describe a type of artwork which has a specific theme, style or technique usually during a particular time in history.
critique	To evaluate and assess something in a constructive manner
Concept	Thoughts, ideas, theme
subconscious	Concerning the part of your mind which you are not fully aware of but which still influences your actions and feelings
Surrealism	1924 Art Movement that depicts dreams and unconscious thoughts and ideas
Hybrid	2 different species that are combined together
Contemporary Artist	A practitioner who is still alive and actively creates Artwork that is exhibited

Alexis Diaz - Puerto Rican street artist. His work depicts metamorphosed characters hand painted on white rendered walls using precise, neat black painted brush strokes. He has a preference for wild animals, replacing paws with suckers and wings with hands.

Cultural Capital

Surrealism is an Art Movement as an aftermath of WWI. There are many different forms of Surrealism, painting, photography, poems and text, film and sculpture.

