

Enquiry question: How similar were 11th Century Baghdad and Anglo-Saxon England?

What am I going to learn?

Recap of Medieval England and an introduction to Medieval Baghdad
How developed was medieval trade?
What was life like in Medieval Baghdad and Anglo-Saxon England?
How were women treated?
How important was learning and education?
Did Anglo-Saxon England and Medieval Baghdad experience a 'Golden Age'?
End of topic assessment

Life for women

Religion

Medieval trade networks

In this unit you will study key features of life in two medieval civilisations

Anglo-Saxon England

Medieval Baghdad

Everyday life

You will then make judgements about how similar or different life was

Education

Periods in British History	1st	0	BC (Before Christ)
	2nd
Romans in Britain 55BC – 410AD	3rd	500 AD	AD (Anno Domini)
	4th
Saxon and Viking Britain 410AD – 1066AD	5th	1000 AD	AD (Anno Domini)
	6th
Medieval Britain 1066AD – 1485AD	7th	1500 AD	AD (Anno Domini)
	8th
Tudor Britain 1485AD – 1603AD	9th	2000 AD	AD (Anno Domini)
	10th
Stuart Britain 1603AD – 1714AD	11th	21st	AD (Anno Domini)
	12th
Georgian Britain 1714AD – 1837AD	13th	Living history	AD (Anno Domini)
	14th
Victorian Britain 1837AD - 1901AD	15th	Living history	AD (Anno Domini)
	16th
Living history	17th	Living history	AD (Anno Domini)
	18th
Living history	19th	Living history	AD (Anno Domini)
	20th
Living history	21st	Living history	AD (Anno Domini)
	21st

Keyword	Definition	Keyword	Definition
Algorithms	A set of rules for problem solving	Inference	Learning something from a piece of evidence
Astronomy	Study of outer space	Mecca	Holy city in Islamic faith and site of pilgrimages
Caliph	A king / ruler of an Islamic kingdom	Scholars	People who spent their time reading and studying
Equality	The belief that everyone should be given the same opportunities, regardless of things such as their race, age, or gender	Society	Life for people who live in the same communities
Golden Age	A period where life is positive, with peace and prosperity	Trade	Buying, selling, or exchanging goods and services
Hadith	Reports on everything Mohammed said or did		