

Year 8 unit 2: The Black Tudors

Enquiry question: Who were the Black Tudors?

What am I going to learn?

1. An introduction to the Black Tudors

2. Who was John Blanke?

3. Who was Jacques Francis?

4. How were the Black Tudors treated in Tudor England?

5. What else can we learn about the Black Tudors?

6. End of topic knowledge quiz and skills assessment

Primary sources of evidence were created at the time of the event being studied, by people who were present.

Historical interpretations are made after an event, by people who were not present.

An interpretation is a historian's view of an event. They have usually conducted lots of research and used evidence to form their opinions.

Books Films TV shows

Primary sources of evidence used to discover more about the lives of the Black Tudors:

- Birth certificates
- Marriage certificates
- Death certificates
- Baptism certificates
- Letters
- Court documents
- Inventories
- The Westminster Tournament Roll

Keyword	Definition	Keyword	Definition
Inference	learning something from a piece of evidence	Inventory	a document containing a list of someone's belongings
Salvage diver	an expert who tries to recover sunken ships or cargo	Servant	a person who is employed to do work for someone else
Shillings	old English currency	Slave	a person who is considered to be the property of someone else
Primary evidence	immediate, first-hand accounts of a topic (by someone who was there)	Yeoman	someone who took care of the land and was often trusted to do important tasks

