

Weather

Big Question: How is the weather measured?	Big Question: Why does it rain?	Big Question: What is air pressure and why is it so important?	Big Question: How do depressions affect our weather?	Big Question: How can we report the weather?
Learning Intention: To know the characteristics of weather and how it is measured.	Learning Intention: To know the processes leading to rainfall.	Learning Intention: To know about air pressure and the conditions associated with high pressure.	Learning Intention: To know about the weather associated with the passage of a depression.	Learning Intention: To demonstrate knowledge and understanding of how the weather is forecast.

End of Unit Assessment	Big Question: Do we have extreme weather in the UK?	Big Question: What impact do tropical storms have?	Big Question: How do tropical storms develop?
Learning Intention: To apply knowledge and understanding of processes and impacts.	Learning Intention: To know about the types of extreme weather experienced in the UK and understand why different types of extreme weather can be hazardous.	Learning Intention: To know about effects of tropical storms.	Learning Intention: To know where tropical storms happen and why they occur there.

Think big.
Chase dreams.
Succeed together.